PARTNER JOHN MINIER SELECTED AMONG AMERICA'S TOP 100 MEDICAL MALPRACTICE LITIGATORS ®

Yates, McLamb & Weyher, L.L.P., is pleased to announce partner John W. Minier's selection among America's Top 100 Medical Malpractice Litigators® in 2021.

Due to Mr. Minier's exceptional ranking among Medical Malpractice Litigators in the region and his previous selection as a Lifetime Achievement Recipient among America's Top 100 Attorneys®, he has also been chosen as an Initial Selection Recipient for this award.

Qualifying candidates are evaluated and ranked based upon proprietary algorithms and Advanced Data Analytics, which assess a broad array of criteria for each candidate, including (but not limited to) the attorney's significant medical malpractice/medical device settlements and/or verdicts, other exceptional legal achievements, professional experience, peer reputation ratings, client satisfaction ratings, other notable honors, media notoriety, and community impact, among many other proprietary factors.

Less than one-half percent (0.5%) of attorneys in the United States will ever receive this award, making it the premier achievement for Medical Malpractice Attorneys throughout the nation.

A graduate of Duke University School of Law (J.D., honors 1988), Mr. Minier devotes his practice primarily to defending medical malpractice claims and has served as lead counsel in many medical trials. He has defended through trial medical providers in the following specialties: cardiology, radiology, gastroenterology, general surgery, vascular surgery, emergency medicine, OB/GYN, internal medicine, and family practice. Beyond physicians, Mr. Minier has also represented hospitals, nursing homes, and individual nurses in malpractice litigation. He has appeared before the state's regulatory boards including the North Carolina Medical Board.
