

SOUTH CAROLINA

THE MCKAY FIRM LANDS TWO ON SC SUPER LAWYERS LIST

COLUMBIA, SC - The McKay Firm is pleased to announce that two of the firms' Partners, Julius W. "Jay" McKay, II, and Daniel R. Settana Jr., have been selected as 2021 South Carolina Super Lawyers by Super Lawyers Magazine.

Mr. McKay was selected for inclusion in the area of medical malpractice law. It's the 12th consecutive year he has been selected in this field. He also practices in health care law, products liability, commercial litigation, government defense, appellate law and professional licensure disputes.

His grandfather, Douglas McKay, Sr., started The McKay Firm in 1908.

Mr. Settana was selected for inclusion in the area transportation law for the sixth time. He also practices in insurance, civil rights defense, governmental defense, premises liability and general insurance defense litigation.

No more than five percent of the lawyers in South Carolina are selected by SuperLawyers. Super Lawyers, part of Thomson Reuters, is a rating service that makes selections based on a patented multiphase process, which includes a statewide survey of lawyers, an independent research evaluation of candidates and peer reviews by practice area.

JULIUS MCKAY II

803.256.4645
JMckay@mckayfirm.com

DAN SETTANA JR

803.256.4645
DSettana@mckayfirm.com