The Florida law firm member of The Gavel, Luks Santaniello Petrillo Cohen & Peterfriend, secured a major win for its client! The Products and Environment Team, led by Managing Partner, Miami Florida, Attorney Stuart Cohen, obtained a Dismissal for Lack of personal Jurisdiction. Attorneys Edgardo Ferreyra, John Reddin and the products/asbestos litigation team drafted a Motion to Dismiss for Lack of Personal Jurisdiction for one of the firm's brake clients on a multi-million dollar case. The motion argued there was not sufficient minimum contacts with the state. Further, the motion stated the client could not predict their materials would reach the forum State of Florida. The Firm argued its motion and the Judge in Miami-Dade County agreed! The Motion was granted and the case was dismissed.
