

Houston, Texas

RAMEY, CHANDLER,
QUINN & ZITO, P.C.

Lee Thibodeaux

Family v. Truck Driver and Motor Carrier (Texas District Court, Taylor County)

Attorney Lee Thibodeaux of Ramey, Chandler, Quinn And Zito in Texas, obtained an Order to designate a “John Doe” as a responsible third party on behalf of his client, driver and motor carrier. Plaintiff sued Truck Driver and Motor Carrier related to a rear-end collision on an interstate highway when Plaintiff suddenly and unexpectedly slowed because water from the third party (another tractor trailer) sprayed onto Plaintiff’s windshield causing Plaintiff to slow almost to a stop. The Defense argued that the third-party unknown tractor trailer (John Doe) engaged in criminal behavior by passing on the wrong lane (right lane) and listed the act as a contributing cause in the police report. The Court entered an Order allowing the unknown John Doe to be designated and submitted to the jury as a contributing party.