WWBH Principals Brandon Copeland and Bo Devereux scored a full defense verdict for their client in Madison County, Illinois. Their client was a local homeowner who was sued by a former city employee alleging that the homeowner placed a yard waste bag out for pickup that was filled with rocks and well-over the allowable weight limit.

Plaintiff underwent a shoulder surgery and physical therapy and sought $350,000.00 for his injuries, lost wages and pain and suffering. After a short deliberation, the jury returned its verdict for the homeowner--a very happy and relieved client!
