BRANDON JONES SECURES TWO DEFENSE VERDICTS

Brandon Jones obtained two defense verdicts in a personal automobile wreck case in South Carolina state court. There were two plaintiffs versus one defendant. Plaintiff one had roughly 9k in medical specials; Plaintiff two had medical specials totaling more than the policy limits. The case involved a centerline crossing and question of liability.

The Plaintiffs alleged the insured pulled out from a gas station in front of them causing the wreck. The insured testified the Plaintiffs crossed the centerline and hit her head-on. We were able to prove through photos, property damage documents, and independent witness testimony that the liability was in our favor.

After a two-day trial, the jury returned verdicts in favor of the Defendant, finding she did not proximately cause the accident or the injuries to the Plaintiffs. No post-trial motions or appeals were filed.
