SUMMARY JUDGMENT OBTAINED IN ANTI-STACKING PROVISION

Bailey & Wyant PLLC's Managing Member David L. Wyant and Member Jason P. Pockl of the Wheeling office obtained Summary Judgment on a complex commercial liability insurance coverage issue in the United States District Court for the Southern Division of West Virginia.

Mr. Wyant and Mr. Pockl successfully defended an anti-stacking provision in a commercial liability policy. The Court ultimately found that the anti-stacking provision was valid and enforceable. Pursuant to this decision, Mr. Wyant and Mr. Pockl successfully excluded coverage under an additional commercial liability policy.
