Defense Verdict on bodily injury damages

On February 25, 2020, Craig Pelini, of Pelini, Campbell & Williams, LLC, tried the matter of Bobby Brummitt, et. al. v. Dylan Seeholzer, et al. in the Erie County Court of Common Pleas in Sandusky, Ohio.

By way of background, this matter was filed by Plaintiffs in 2011 against Defendant, an insurance company. The case on bodily injury damages proceeded to trial before the Court in 2013. Plaintiff also sought extra contractual damages and a subsequent trial went forward in 2016. That verdict was the subject of an appeal. The Court of Appeals ruled that the Plaintiffs' claims for punitive damages must be retried. That case proceeded to jury trial in February 2020. The jury, in less than one hour of deliberations, returned a verdict in favor of the Defendant, Ohio Mutual Insurance Group. No appeal has been filed and court costs have been ordered against the Plaintiff and in favor of the Defendant.
